Basis and purposes of data processing

Your data will be processed for:

- the implementation of services provided by us on the basis of relevant regulations - the legal basis is Article 6(1)(b) of the GDPR i.e. the necessity of processing in order to perform a contract to which the data subject is a party or to take action at the request of the data subject prior to entering into a contract;
- the fulfilment of our legal obligations and prevention of acting to our detriment or to the detriment of other customers, arising from, among others, the Act on Providing Services by Electronic Means, the Act on Payment Services or the Act on Prevention of Money Laundering and Financing of Terrorism - the legal basis is Article 6(1)(c) GDPR i.e. the necessity of processing in order to fulfil a legal obligation incumbent on the controller;
- sending commercial information by electronic means regarding our services or those of our business partners - the legal basis is Article 6(1)(a) GDPR i.e. the consent of the data subject;
- handling of requests forwarded to us that are not directly related to the services provided, defence and vindication of claims, debt collection, conducting legal proceedings, informing about the introduction of changes to the services or operation of the service that do not require changes to the terms and conditions, conducting surveys, taking care of the security of customers and transactions carried out - the legal basis is Article 6(1)(f) GDPR i.e. the legitimate interest pursued by the administrator or by a third party.

Sources of obtaining your personal data

We process personal data that we have obtained directly from you or from publicly available registers (e.g. KRS, CEIDG).

Your rights in connection with the processing of your personal data

The data subject has the right to request: rectification, erasure, portability or restriction of processing of personal data, and to object to such processing, including profiling.

The Data Subject has the right to lodge a complaint to the supervisory authority in charge of personal data protection, i.e. the President of the Office for Personal Data Protection with its seat in Warsaw, Stawki 2 Street, 00-193 Warsaw.

To the extent that the basis for our processing of your personal data is your consent, you have the right to withdraw it at any time. However, withdrawal of consent does not affect the lawfulness of the processing that was performed on the basis of consent before its withdrawal. It also does not affect the possibility of processing your personal data to the extent necessary for the performance of an obligation arising from a legal provision or for the establishment, investigation or defence of possible claims.

Duration of storage of your personal data

Personal data will be stored by us until the purpose of data processing is completed or until you request deletion of data, object to further data processing, or revoke your consent to data processing - unless further processing is required by generally applicable law (e.g., to fulfil obligations under applicable laws or to defend claims).

Transfer of personal data, including automatic decision-making (the so-called "profiling")

Information on the recipients of personal data

Your personal data may be transferred to entities that process personal data on behalf of the Data Controller, including, but not limited to, banks and other financial institutions that support the provision of services, IT service providers, companies that provide archiving services, with such entities processing data on the basis of a contract with the Data Controller and only in accordance with the instructions of the Data Controller.

The data collected may be made available to entities authorized by law, such as the General Inspector of Financial Information.
